

Bio Alisia Ialiccio:

Alisia Ialiccio is an Italian dancer, teacher and choreographer, born in Campobasso and based in Rome. Student of the Accademia Nazionale di Danza, she received her BFA in Modern and Contemporary Dance, now she's studying for her Master Degree in Dance Teaching Program. In 2017 she won a scholarship for Martha Graham Dance School and she was in New York to deepen her knowledge on Graham, Cunningham, Horton Technique and Contemporary Dance. She has danced in Panorama by Martha Graham, reconstructed by Caterina Rago, in Ravello Festival and she worked with many choreographers like Buglisi, Siard, Simeoni, Haisma, Picò, Capanna, Di Pretoro, Azuela. Ialiccio, is the Coordinator of the dance faculty for Dance Art Campobasso and she works to help the young talent to step into the professional dance world.